

Remembrance

A sight that is etched in my memory and is one of the most striking things I've ever seen, was the moat surrounding the Tower of London filled with 888,246 ceramic poppies - each one representing a life lost in a British or colonial conflict.

We purchased one of the poppies, and it stands proudly in our hallway. Each time I see it, it reminds me of those who gave their lives in war.

Memory is such a precious gift. We recall the past and those memories, whether of a pleasant experience or not, prompt in us a reaction. A happy memory brings about a sense of nostalgia because we recall a particular joy, a special point in our lives, an experience or event that was important and one that would probably never be repeated. A sad memory is harder to come to terms with and for many is a painful reminder of personal hurt that is sometimes difficult to recall.

But Remembrance is more than memory. Remembrance is recalling the past in order to affect the future. The Bible is full of instances where God calls his people to remember. In the Old Testament there are many occasions where God calls his people to remember something in the past so that it will affect their behaviour in the future. In the New Testament the biggest act of remembrance was when Jesus broke bread and shared wine saying "Do this in remembrance of me".

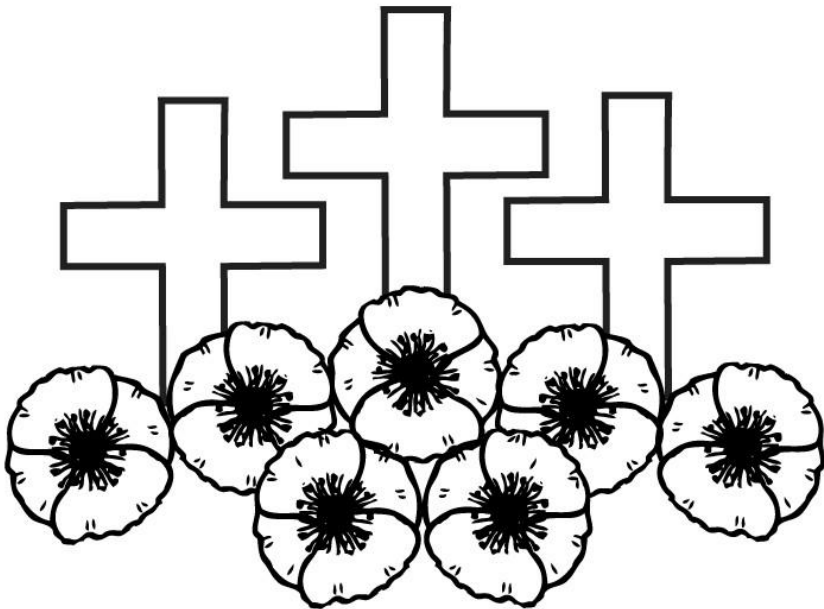

Jesus told us to do this in remembrance of him. To remember the whole person he was and is and not just his death. We are to remember Jesus who lived selflessly, cared for the poor, the destitute, the homeless, the sick, and the forgotten. Jesus who forgave. Jesus who called everyone to follow him. It was those who responded to that invitation that he gave this memorial of the bread and wine in Holy Communion – "Do this in remembrance of me". This means so much more than just thinking of the fact that Jesus died for us. It is tied up with recalling the past so that we may affect the future. It is calling us to continue the work which he began.

In this month of Remembrance Sunday we recall those who gave their lives to give us a future, but we need to affect the future so that their sacrifice was worth it.

Jesus died, not that we might go on living in the same old way, but that we might live our lives as a reflection of His, so that his death was not in vain.

God Bless, Sally.

CHRISTIAN CHARITY NEWS

TEARFUND

TEARFUND is now one of the top 10 UK emergency relief charities and was set up in the 1960's by the Evangelical Alliance Relief Fund, when Christians started to send donations to help the millions of people worldwide made refugees by war or disasters. They have served in some of the world's worst disasters including in the 1970's and 80's helping Cambodia's refugees after the terrifying reign of Pol Pot and later in the Rwandan genocide when Tearfund staff were sent to help the thousands of refugees in Tanzania and Zaire who had fled the carnage. In 2004 the Boxing Day Tsunami happened and Tearfund were helping survivors in Sri Lanka, India, Indonesia, Thailand and Somalia. 2010 saw the massive earthquake in Haiti and Tearfund were again there in the midst of the devastation and staying for the long haul, supporting long term reconstructing work to bring hope to shattered remote communities. Again, after the Typhoon hit the Philippines, Tearfund were involved once more in relief and reconstructing work and are now working in Nepal following the 2 devastating earthquakes there.

They help to feed the hungry, provide clean water and sanitation to some of the world's poorest people, although still 1 in 8 people (more than the population of the EU and USA combined) go hungry each day.

From the early years to the present day, Tearfund share God's love and whole life vision for humanity, serving people worldwide, regardless of race, religion, gender or nationality, funded by the generous giving of its supporters. It is still driven by the unending compassion of Jesus, still determined to bring life in all its fullness to people in extreme poverty, tackling suffering and injustice, joining word and deed, reaching out where the need is greatest.

Tearfund is a Christian organization, passionate about living out God's Kingdom values of love, hope and transformation. It's what inspires and drives them. Long term development remains at the heart of Tearfund's work, building partnerships with local churches to increase their ability to bring change to poor communities.

They also speak out and campaign, which earns them the reputation for being a voice for the voiceless and mobilises supporters here regarding developing countries' debts.

Anyone wishing to find out more about their work or to make a donation can contact Tearfund at 100 Church Road, Teddington, TW11 8QE, telephone them on 0208 977 9144 or go online to

Holy Trinity Church, Hartshill

We Need Friends!

Holy Trinity Church, Hartshill was built between 1842 and 1848 from local stone that was donated by Mr Richard Jee and with funds raised by the local people, initially a sum of £650 and later, following a major setback when part of the building work collapsed, approx £2500 donated by Rev. H.E.Lowe who was visiting friends in Atherstone.

Over the years many more gifts and donations have enabled the building to be adorned and today we have a very beautiful church for the community to enjoy and which the congregation of Holy Trinity gratefully uses for worship.

As a Grade 11 listed building all repairs and maintenance have to be in accordance with strict guidelines and this means the costs are higher than for unlisted buildings. With a congregation of 50-80 people we are able to support the spiritual life of the church but we are unable to meet the running costs, which last year amounted to around £36,500. Therefore, to find the funds for the repair and maintenance of the building is becoming increasingly difficult.

The congregation remain committed to funding special community projects. These are supported by donations from the congregation and the generosity of local businesses. We hope to continue to run community events in the future and feel that we can sustain the budget for these which currently runs at hundreds of pounds. The difficulty that we have is that building repairs and maintenance cost thousands of pounds a year, and although we can often get grants for some of the works, we will shortly be unable to afford to maintain the church building.

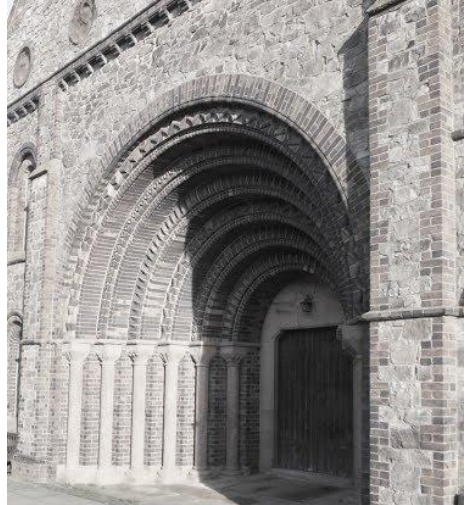

Many people who only visit the church occasionally still feel that it is an important part of their community, lives or heritage. We believe that the wider community should be given the chance to help in its survival. If you care about the building and would like to support the work of repairing and maintaining it, could we ask you to contact us using the information at the end of this appeal please, so that we can record your interest and supply further details about how you can help?

We understand that you may not be in sympathy with the spiritual life of the church, or may be of another faith, or have no faith, so we are setting up a completely separate fund for repair and maintenance.

Other churches in our area have closed because the cost of maintaining them could not be sustained any longer. We want to try to avoid this happening at Holy Trinity. If you agree, we hope that you will support this appeal.

We would like to thank you for reading this appeal and thank you for your kindness if you feel able to support us.

If you do feel that you would like to help us in preserving this important local church, please email carol.miles@sky.com (Churchwarden)

Please take time to look at the information in the preceding article about the 'Friends of Holy Trinity Church, Hartshill'. As a church, we rely on donations not only to keep the church running and in good order but also to fulfil our commitment to the Diocese which in 2015 is £26,812. We are currently looking at a shortfall of £8,000 and so any donation would be appreciated if we are to continue as a church serving this community. Also, in December's magazine, look out for details of our charity gifts, again helping us with the resources we need to serve you.

Mothers' UNION

Christian care for families

October's Mothers' Union meeting was all about fellowship and creativity. We had a very enjoyable evening making lovely paper flowers, expertly tutored by Wendy.

In November, Heather Greaves will be informing us about the trip she made with other members of Coventry Diocese Mothers' Union to the beautiful country of Madagascar. As always, visitors are very welcome!

Add sultanas and gently stir in</li> <li>5. Gradually blend in flour using figures of 8 movements with a metal spoon.</li> <li>6. When thoroughly mixed, divide mixture between the sandwich tins</li> <li>7. Bake for 20-25 minutes</li> <li>8. Leave to cool on wire rack</li> </ol>
Ingredients Filling          6oz of sweet dessert apple diced small          1 small sweet dessert apple cut into thin segments          2oz soft brown sugar	Method Filling Put the sugar and all the apples in a small saucepan over a medium to high heat and stir to coat the apples in sugar, once the sugar is melted boil, stirring occasionally for 4 minutes then remove the segments and set aside to cool. Continue to boil the sugar and diced apples, stirring occasionally, for another 6 minutes then take off the heat and allow to cool.
Ingredients Topping          2.5oz butter softened          4.5oz dark brown muscovado sugar          50ml double cream          3oz icing sugar          Little salt to taste (optional)	Method Topping Put 1.5oz of the butter and the muscovado sugar and cream in a small pan. Heat gently until butter is melted. Then bring to the boil, stirring. Reduce the heat and simmer gently for 5 minutes, stirring frequently. Pour into a heatproof mixing bowl and gradually beat in the icing sugar, using an electric mixer. When all the sugar has been incorporated, continue beating until the mixture is fluffy and barely warm. Gradually beat in the rest of the butter and

add the salt if using. Taste and add more salt if desired.

Assembly

Place the bottom layer of the cake on plate or stand. Spoon over the diced apples and spread out in an even layer. Place the top layer and then pour the caramel into the middle of the cake and spread and swirl over the top and let it run down the sides if desired. (If it has set too hard, warm in a saucepan until it is easier to spread).

Place the apple segments in a circle on the top, slightly overlapping.

(Sharon made this cake for the Harvest Supper. I can thoroughly recommend it! Sue.)

Church Flowers in October/November

25th October

In memory of Lily and Harold Harrison

1st November

In memory of Roy Beebe

8th November

To commemorate the contribution of British and Commonwealth military and civilian servicemen and women in the two World Wars and later conflicts.

I think we all agree that the flowers in church are always a picture and thanks go to Jan and her team for decorating the church so beautifully. However, effective displays inevitably cost. Please do consider sponsoring the altar flowers, perhaps in memory of someone you love or to celebrate a special event. As a guide, £15 buys the flowers for a lovely display for the week but any contribution would be gratefully received.

For the Fallen (by Laurence Binyon)

With proud thanksgiving, a mother for her children,
England mourns for her dead across the sea.
Flesh of her flesh they were, spirit of her spirit,
Fallen in the cause of the free.

Solemn the drums thrill: Death august and royal
Sings sorrow up into immortal spheres.
There is music in the midst of desolation
And a glory that shines upon our tears.

They went with songs to the battle, they were young,
Straight of limb, true of eye, steady and aglow.
They were staunch to the end against odds uncounted,
They fell with their faces to the foe.

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.

They mingle not with their laughing comrades again;
They sit no more at familiar tables of home;
They have no lot in our labour of the day-time;
They sleep beyond England's foam.

But where our desires are and our hopes profound,
Felt as a well-spring that is hidden from sight,
To the innermost heart of their own land they are known
As the stars are known to the Night;

As the stars that shall be bright when we are dust,
Moving in marches upon the heavenly plain,
As the stars that are starry in the time of our darkness,
To the end, to the end, they remain.

Poem by Robert Laurence Binyon (1869-1943), published in The Times newspaper on 21st September 1914.
