

Freely you have received....freely give.

Why is the dead sea dead? It's because although water enters through tributaries there are no major outlets for the water to go to. Only receiving and never giving out is also unhealthy – which is why giving is a good thing – not just for the person or thing we are giving to – but we are also blessed by giving to others.

Yes – at church people give in order to pay the bills, maintain the building, pay our share to the Diocese and fulfil our obligations etc. but giving out is also part of the mission (and the duty) of the church. Here at Holy Trinity, we give specifically to local and international charities and organisations like Youth-180 and Aim for change. But we support other charities too like The Children's Society (at Christingle) and the Zulum Trust – (through the charitable purchase of our palm crosses.) But we can so easily overlook the ways in which as a church and as individuals we give in many, many other ways...for example.....

Resources and gifts for our community events (Sausage sizzle and Christmas meal), transport, items for the foodbank, baking cakes for events, gifts for the Summer and Christmas Fayre, items to help with Messy Church, milk and biscuits for refreshments, harvest produce, money for flowers and time to arrange them, setting up for services, postage and phonecalls, as well as the incalculable time given so generously by so many people eg, administration, service planning, rotas, staffing the community library, fabric, pastoral visits, mowing the lawns and keeping the grounds tidy etc... etc... etc..

We can only give freely to God because He has given freely to us and remember the Bible teaches us that the measure we give out is the measure we receive. And although we can never out-give God (because He gave everything for us) freely you have received....so freely give.....because don't forget it is actually more blessed to give than to receive.

So give and be a blessing and be blessed in the process!

God Bless, Heather <><

Praying for our Parish in September

When we think of prayer we think of kneeling but we do so little of it nowadays. We kneel or prostrate ourselves (lie on our front) as a sign of humility and earnestness when asking God. We sit and contemplate on what God wants. We walk with God in relationship. We stand firm in difficult situations. We raise our hands in thanks and we raise our voices when we get passionate. We do many things to help us pray, some in the heat of the moment and some written down for us to remember.

1	Write down a prayer for what you want God to do this month - keep it till the end of the month.
2	Raise your hands in thanks for all the teachings and friendships in the fellowship / prayer groups
3	Girls Brigade and scouts meet on Thursdays - raise your voice (shout) for the lives of the young people and their leaders.
4	Pray while walking that the street pastors would be able to walk alongside those who need them.
5	Alex and Harriet are getting married today. Kneel and ask God that everyone getting married this month would honour Him in their marriage.
6	Christening of Amelia Lack. Stand and pray for all those being christened and their families that they would stand strong on the promises they made.
7	School starts. Write down children's names on a post it note. Pray for them when you see it.
8	As the bishop visits the deanery, kneel and pray that he will show us the right way forward and find answers.

9	Churches together beetle drive - raise your hands and thank God that churches can work together.
10	As you walk with god today pray for the government and ask that they would be in touch with the people whom they serve.
11	Whisper your prayer for the emergency services that they will find a calm place amidst the turmoil.
12	Heritage day. Sit and pray for the people who are looking at what is done for the glory of God that they would contemplate that glory.
13	Raise your hands and thank the Holy Spirit for all He has done and all He gives us.
14	Stand firm on Psalm 8 v 2 as you pray for Trinity Tots.
15	Girl Guiding and Boys Brigade meet today - raise your voice (shout) for the lives of the young people and their leaders.
16	Write on a piece of paper the names of people who go to Messy Church or may benefit of going to Messy Church. Feel free to decorate the piece of paper.
17	As you walk around your house pray for family relationships. Pray that families will grow closer together and to God.
18	Sit and think of how the church can work with the environment. Pray for the diocesan environmental conference that meets today and tomorrow.
19	As the Saturday Club meets for the first time, kneel and pray for its success.

20	Shout out to God for those without a voice and the persecuted Christians.
21	Stand and pray for church leaders that they will stand firm on the Word of the Lord.
22	Write a prayer for the sick and the lonely. Write a letter or note if you know someone who could do with some encouragement.
23	The over 50s meet today. Sit and pray for them, that they can pass on their experiences and wisdom to the next generation.
24	Prostrate yourself before God and ask Him to bring more people to know Him
25	As you walk down the road pray for teenagers and young people that they will walk in the right direction.
26	Raise your hands and thank God for all the good things He gives us as we celebrate the Harvest Supper tonight.
27	Harvest service - kneel before God and ask Him what we can give Him out of what He has given us.
28	Stand and pray for the deanery standing committee which meets today.
29	Sit and pray for university students that they would take time to think about the big decisions they are making.
30	Look back at the letter you wrote at the start of the month. Raise your hands and thank God for the month you had. Pray for the things not yet answered.

Philippians 4:6-7

Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus about everything. With thankful hearts offer up your prayers and requests to God.

CHRISTIAN CHARITY NEWS

THE LEPROSY MISSION

If anyone would like their box emptying, could you please hand it in during September. Also, the Leprosy Mission Trading catalogue should be available in church during September. If you'd like to take a copy home to browse through, please do; but please return for others to borrow. If you'd like to order any cards or gifts, please let me have your order by the end of October. An early order usually ensures people receiving everything they've ordered.

Thank you, Lynda Kelly

Following our summer recess we will be meeting in the Library at 7.30 on Wednesday 16th September. We are very excited to be welcoming Di Sliwinski, the Diocesan President of the Mothers' Union, who will be addressing the question 'Who are the Mothers' Union?' Visitors are always very welcome and this month in particular!

Also, Lynda told us about the Chintowa charity in last month's magazine. MU support this charity by knitting squares for blankets. However, it takes a lot of knitting to achieve enough squares for a blanket and so, if you enjoy knitting and would like to contribute, we would welcome more squares. Use double knit wool and size 4mm (old size 8) needles. Each square should be 6" x 6" (about 30 stitches). Any colour, any stitch, any design is acceptable.

Thank you, Sue

Teacher's Prayer

By James J. Metcalf

I want to teach my students how
To live this life on earth,
To face its struggles and its strife
And to improve their worth.
Not just the lesson in a book,
Or how the rivers flow,
But to choose the proper path,
Wherever they may go.
To understand eternal truth,
And know right from wrong,
And gather all the beauty of
A flower and a song,
For if I help the world to grow
In wisdom and grace,
Then I feel that I have won
And I have filled my place,
And so I ask your guidance, God
That I may do my part,
For character and confidence
And happiness of heart.

Church Flower Sponsorship

I think we all agree that the flowers in church are always a picture and thanks go to Jan and her team for decorating the church so beautifully. However, effective displays inevitably cost and contributions are always welcome. Please do consider sponsoring the altar flowers, perhaps in memory of someone you love.

A number of dates are available. For details, see Jan in church or telephone her on 02476 395467. Also, if you enjoy arranging flowers and would like to join Jan's team of flower arrangers, please talk to Jan.
